Bournemouth open meet 11/12 April

Poole took 23 swimmers to an almost last chance open meet to gain Regional Qualifying Times, with 11 of the swimmers focused on what the weather was doing in Saint Tropez ahead of our Easter Training Camp team spirit was high.

Such was the dedication of the swimmers (not to mention the parents) that some went straight from the pool to the plane on the Sunday.

The meet was a big success in terms of our main competitive criteria namely Regional Qualifying Times, PB's & Medals.

As the table shows Kiran Olenicz starred for the boys with 2 RQT's from his 2 events both were PB's & both secured bronze, Harry Moore continues to build on his promising start to competitive swimming with 1 RQT, 5 PB's & 2 silver medals & the human metronome that is Declan Callahan with 2 gold & 2 silver medals & 3 PB's.

For the girls there was the exceptional Jade Norman with 2 gold, 3 silver a RQT & 5 PB's, Becky Brown with 2 silvers a bronze & 2 PB's, Danni Callahan with a gold & silver, Emily Clarke with a RQT & 3 PB's, Inez Griffin with 2 bronze medals & 2 PB's.

Other swimmers who performed well Georgina Tucker with 2 PB's, Rochelle Stott with 4, Phoebe Notley with 3 & a bronze, Gemma Owen with 2 PB's, Jessie Stott with 3, Ben Tucker with 2, Ben Porter with 2, Jamie Gray with 2, Sarah Mills with 1, Lucinda with 1 & Daniel Monk with a PB & bronze medal.
